

A person who uses their hands is a labourer.

One who uses their hands and mind is a craftsperson.

But the person who uses their hands and mind and heart is an artist.

St. Francis of Assisi